

North East Regional Landlords Conference 2009

The future of the Private Rented Sector – a Landlords Guide

The North East Regional Landlords Conference is now in its fourth year, this event is organised in association with three of the north easts largest local authorities, Newcastle City Council, Gateshead Council and North Tyneside Council and one of the largest landlord associations in the UK, the National Landlords Association. This is becoming an event not to be missed.

The conference, which has in the past attracted over 200 delegates made up of landlords, property owners, letting agents and property investors, aims to inform, educate and update on all that is needed to be known about renting properties such as new regulations to be followed, policy issues that the government are introducing and good practice in renting properties.

This year's free event, which will be held at St James Park on Friday, March 6th 2009, will include speakers from national organisations and private rented stakeholders on the future of the private rented housing market and will pick up on the recent review of the sector which has recommended some key changes in the way the sector operates.

Workshops this year include

- tenancy management
- Fire safety risk assessments and guidance
- tenants debts and rent management
- and getting more out of your local authority

Exhibitors in the past have included

- Letting agents
- Deposit protection companies
- Energy Saving Companies and organisations
- Local Authority Private Sector Teams
- Security companies
- Landlord associations
- Landlord Insurance Companies
